Playful experimenting and playing with mirror images ... always exciting!

So children can take on the role of prince or princess or fox and lion. Mirrors are fascinating and complement the Plug it line perfectly.

This set contains six mirrors in different shapes. With the imaginative motifs, the children can immerse themselves in the world of the characters and there are no limits to the free role play.

Set Up: The mirrors are stuck on the plate.

Game Idea: The children place the mirrors exactly where they want them and always in a new place. For example, does the princess live in the house or do the prince and princess meet at the back of the house? The children place the mirrors at the right height and stand in front of the mirrors and see themselves in the different characters or symbols. From the princess to the lion.

Educational Area: Creativity, Roleplay.

STORY TIME!

Together with the children, invent stories around the figures.
